

GGSIPO COLLEGE-WISE & COURSE-WISE CUT-OFF GUIDE

2026-27 • Round 3 reference + eligibility overview

Important: how to interpret these ranks

The official GGSIPU cutoff PDFs publish institute + programme + category/region-specific minimum and maximum ranks. A college does not have one universal cutoff. The rank bands below are transcribed from the visible rank ranges in the official Round 3 reports as a quick shortlist; the reports contain multiple category and region columns, and the bands should NOT be treated as a single General-category cutoff. Open the linked official PDF and match the exact column for your category, Delhi/outside-Delhi status, seat type and shift.

5. B.Tech — Code 131 | College/branch-wise cutoff

B.Tech cutoffs must be compared by both institute and engineering branch (for example, CSE, IT, ECE, Mechanical, Civil, AI/ML where offered), and by JEE Main rank, region and category. The official Round 3 report is the correct source for each college-branch row. Eligibility generally requires 10+2 with Physics and Mathematics plus the prescribed third subject(s), and the minimum aggregate/subject rules in the current brochure.

What students should compare	Do not compare
Same branch + same institute + same category/region column	CSE at one college vs Mechanical at another as if they share a cutoff
JEE Main rank and the same counselling round	CET rank against JEE Main rank
Delhi-region vs outside-Delhi seat pool separately	One combined rank band for all candidates

6. BA (JMC) — Code 126 | College-wise report

Eligibility snapshot: 10+2 and programme-specific minimum marks under the current brochure. Confirm the currently notified admission route and subject requirements.

Student checklist

- Confirm exact programme and college name; some colleges offer multiple shifts or allied programmes.
- Match category, Delhi/outside-Delhi status, seat type and shift in the official PDF.
- Check the current brochure for exact eligibility and entrance/merit route.
- Use earlier rounds only as a guide; closing ranks can change in later rounds and special rounds.
- Keep realistic backup choices and do not assume a rank guarantees admission.

Disclaimer

*Multiple rank bands may appear because the official report separates categories, region/seat pools and other admission conditions. They are shown here as a quick shortlist, not as a universal or guaranteed cutoff. Always confirm the exact row and column in the official PDF before publishing a specific category claim or advising a student.
